2.28.010 Office of Mayor. The City Mayor shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, and within ten days after receiving notice of his election, take the oath of office required by law and file the same in the office of the city clerk.

2.28.020 Duties of Mayor. The duties of the City Mayor shall be as follows:

FIRST: He shall be presiding officer of the city council.

SECOND: He shall appoint committees consisting of the members of the council, or members of the council together with appointive officers as he deems necessary.

THIRD: He shall appoint all city officers as prescribed by the state laws and ordinances of the City of Harlowton, the officers of the city perform their respective duties, and discharge police officers for failure to perform their duties, and shall perform such other duties as by law and ordinances shall be required by him.

FOURTH: He shall have such other and further duties and powers as prescribed by the Political Code of the State of Montana, and the acts supplementary and amendatory thereto and of the city ordinances of the City of Harlowton.

2.28.030 Compensation. The city mayor shall receive such salary as set by the city council as compensation for his duties as city mayor.

2.28.040 Fine. The fine is the withholding of pay for non-attendance. However, in case of sickness no fine shall be assessed. It shall be allowed for the Mayor to miss two (2) meetings per calendar quarter before a fine for non-attendance will be assessed.

2.02.040 Questions Decided Without Debate. All questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate.

2.02.050 Mayor to Appoint Committees. The mayor shall appoint such committees as the council may request.

2.02.060 Demand of Yeas and Nays. Upon the final passage of any ordinance, yeas and nays shall be entered on the minutes unless the same be unanimously adopted. And any member may demand the yeas and nays upon any question pending if the demand is made before the vote is taken.
